

THIS IS NOT POLITICS... THIS IS NOT RELIGION...

THIS IS MURDER.

On August 7, 1998, al-Qa-ida terrorists simultaneously bombed the U.S. embassies in Nairobi, Kenya and Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. The Rewards for Justice program is offering a reward of up to $5 million for information that brings to justice any individual who is responsible for these attacks.

In Nairobi, terrorists detonated a truck bomb near the American embassy, killing 213, including 44 embassy employees (12 Americans and 32 foreign nationals) and injuring over 5,000, including U.S. Ambassador Prudence Bushnell.

In Dar es Salaam, terrorists detonated a truck loaded with explosives which killed 11 and injured 85.

The bombings caused severe damage to both embassy buildings and destroyed nearby offices and businesses.

The Rewards for Justice program is offering a reward of up to $10 million each for information leading to the location, arrest, or conviction of Sayf al-Adl and Abdullah Ahmed Abdullah, and a reward of up to $25 million for information on Ayman al-Zawahiri. All three of these al-Qa'ida leaders are under federal indictment for their role in the bombings.
