Bring Justice ... to his memory and work

The Rewards for Justice Program is offering a reward of up to $5 million for information leading to the arrest or conviction for those persons who committed, planned, or aided in the murder of American citizen Joel Shrum.

On March 18, 2012, Shrum, 29, was killed in Taizz, Yemen, by a gunman on a motorcycle. At the time of his death, Shrum was working for the International Training and Development Center.

The terrorist organization Al Qa'ida in the Arabian Peninsula (AQAP) claimed responsibility for the murder.

If you have information, please contact the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate or info@rewardsforjustice.net. Absolute confidentiality is assured and relocation may be available.

REWARDS FOR JUSTICE
Washington, D.C. 20522-0303 U.S.A.
www.rewardsforjustice.net
info@rewardsforjustice.net